

Meeting Agenda for Class Title:		Servant Leadership
Purpose:		To gain knowledge about the theory of servant leadership and the 10 characteristics/tenets that make up servant leadership.
Objectives/Learning Outcomes:		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identify the 10 tenets of servant leadership - Articulate an increased knowledge of servant leadership - Express how servant leadership fits into one's day to day life
Peer Mentor Utilization:
Appreciative Instruction Phase/Class Method:
Campus Experts/Offices to bring in:		Center for Leadership and Service
Icebreaker suggestions:		High Five Game
Prep Work/Materials/Technology/Room Layout needed:
Best time of the semester:		Any time
Assignment/Reading suggestions:		N/A
Time	Allotted	Agenda
	:05	Opening Facilitate ice breaker Find someone to high five and facilitator will ask a question (i.e. favorite tradition at UT, favorite dessert, etc.) After 4-5 high fives/questions students go back and high five all 4-5 people.
	:05	Topic Servant Leadership Overview Activity: Give an overview of Servant Leadership – leadership theory created by Robert Greenleaf in 1970 that includes 10 characteristics (tenets). *See additional document below.
	:15	Topic Servant Leadership Tenets Activity: Pair up students and handout one of the tenets of Servant Leadership. Ask students to discuss with their partner a time when they have seen that tenet in action or put it into action themselves.
	:05	Break
	:15	Topic Sustainable Leadership Objective: To enact servant leadership on a sustainable scale Activity: Share the Torchbearer statue/creed: "One who beareth the torch shadowth oneself to give light to others." What does this creed mean? What does it mean to you? Who has given you light? Who will you give light to?

		Sustainable worksheet (attached) Have students complete the worksheet and share with a partner or with the whole class.
	:10	Check-out/ Feedback/ Debrief Questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Why is it important to know your “shade tree”? - Who has been your shade tree? - How will you be a servant leader at UT? What is one step of action you will take?
		Adjourn
Announcements/For Next Time:		Upcoming events: Reminders: Assignment Due: