Course Grading:
This course is graded as either Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC). It appears as the first grade on your transcript and reflects the first academic effort at the university. To earn an S, you must complete all activities and assignments as detailed in the course schedules above.

Disability Accommodations
If you have a documented disability, the Office of Disability Services (ODS) can assist you by first determining your eligibility and then working collaboratively to determine reasonable accommodations and services to give you equal access to the University. In the college setting, it is your responsibility to request disability services. You must self-register with ODS before any accommodations can be provided. Visit ods.utk.edu for more information or call 974-6087.

University’s Honor Statement
(From the Undergraduate Catalog): “An essential feature of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is a commitment to maintaining an atmosphere of intellectual integrity and academic honesty. As a student of the university, I pledge that I will neither knowingly give nor receive any inappropriate assistance in academic work, thus affirming my own personal commitment to honor and integrity.”
See catalog.utk.edu for more information.

Plagiarism
(From the Hilltopics student handbook): “Students are also responsible for any acts of plagiarism. Plagiarism is using the intellectual property of someone else without giving proper credit. The undocumented use of someone else’s words or ideas in any medium of communication (unless such information is recognized as common knowledge) is a serious offense, subject to disciplinary action that may include failure in a course and/or dismissal from the university. Specific examples of plagiarism are:

- Copying without proper documentation (quotation marks and a citation) written or spoken words, phrases, or sentences from any source;
- Summarizing without proper documentation (usually a citation) ideas from another source (unless such information is recognized as common knowledge);
• Borrowing facts, statistics, graphs, pictorial representations, or phrases without acknowledging the source (unless such information is recognized as common knowledge);
• Collaborating on a graded assignment without the instructor’s approval;
• Submitting work, either in whole or in part created by a professional service and used without attribution (e.g., paper, speech, bibliography, or photograph)."

For more information on the expectations of academic integrity shared by all members of UT’s academic community, see the Hilltopics student handbook (hilltopics.utk.edu).
